

The Cosmic Paradigm Newsletter

Dear friends,

Thanks to all who are opening their hearts and homes to meeting with me as I journey across this country. You are courageous to come forth. There is much to discuss that cannot be explored within the confines of this newsletter. I look forward to exchanging information with you and your friends.

Since 2002, when Trillion was first published, I have sought to discover the reason I left my business career and began studying messages from extraterrestrials on a full-time basis. I believe you are providing that reason.

To reiterate, the reason I am doing this, it is to connect with those who are open to influencing the planetary transition, and to encourage them to hold the vision of an enlightened world. I am also interested in learning your truth, as I do not believe I have all the answers.

I see our current situation on this planet like a tunnel. The sides are very dark, at times, a little scary-- all sorts of agendas are being perpetrated on the wandering traveler. It is extremely difficult to determine what is true, what is not. The sides of the tunnel are slowly closing upon us. Even if you know that the current paradigm is not true, its allures are so strong as to repeatedly pull us back into the familiar.

There is a light at the end of the tunnel, an enlightened future, a higher dimension. In 3rd dimension terms, this brilliant future embraces the Larger Reality of extraterrestrials and cosmic citizenship. There is unlimited, free energy provided for all. We enjoy a stable, sustainable environment. Each person takes personal responsibility for his or her actions. Truth is the norm; everyone expects it. Cooperation is considered normal; competition is reserved for sporting events. Everyone enjoys excellent health. And everyone achieves his or her highest

If we focus on the sides of the tunnel, it is hard to discern the light at the end. If we focus exclusively on the light, we are apt to lose perspective on what is happening around us and fall prey to one or more of the allures of the darkness. Railing against the current situation only gives it power. As with most things, a balance is required. Being aware that the current paradigm (the sides of the tunnel) does not work motivates us to change, to cast aside those beliefs that blind us, to stop playing the victim. Clinging to the prospect of a brilliant future helps us through the rough spots, and, in turn, gives inspiration to others. Since we are the ones creating this situation with our actions or inactions, in the end, our only hope is to hold the vision of an enlightened future.

In Truth and Love,

Mark

P.S. My journey about the U.S. and Canada has begun. I'm presenting in Roswell on July 3rd. Then we travel to the San Francisco area, making stops in Colorado, Utah, and Nevada. By mid August, we are in Oregon, in late August and September in Washington, British Columbia, and Idaho. Then we head eastward for a gathering the first weekend of October in Wisconsin, back through Colorado to Arizona and Southern California for a couple of months, then we travel across the southern U.S. toward Florida, up the East Coast, and across the Mid West. We plan to see many of you along the way.
