

Cosmic Paradigm Newsletter
by Mark Kimmel
January 28, 2008

Dear friends,

There is much we could discuss at this juncture: time is speeding up, the transition is underway, the truth can be determined by reading between the lines of the massive amount of information being tossed at us. Instead let us focus our energies.

My main reason for communicating with you is to remind you to spend a time, first thing in the morning, this coming Friday February 1st putting forth your concept of the Earth you desire. As I have explained in prior newsletters, we have been asked to design the world to come.

This is NOT a mass meditation; it is not necessary to synchronize our time of meditation. We are not trying to directly influence events here. We are merely indicating how we would like this world to become so that our allies among the star people, spirits, and celestials may accommodate us. Remember, this is our planet; it is our future. Earth will be unique within the galaxy. How would you like your world to be?

The transitioned Earth will not be as radically different as many would like, probably more different than others can live with. Much of what is here is good and loving. The corrupted institutions of mankind will go away, along with the disparity between brothers and sisters, and the harsh struggles for power over others. To be replaced with what? You decide and make your wishes know this coming Friday (and on the first of each month hereafter).

I am unable to send a complete newsletter this time as I am occupied most of my waking hours with writing the 3rd book of the Paradigm Trilogy. "Trillion" and "Decimal" were the first two books. The concluding book promises to be an even better story and the material I am including will be truly revealing.

In Truth, Love and Joy,

Mark Kimmel

My latest book, "Birthing a New Civilization," is available at
